

(s)

4

HIS MAIES TIES GRACIOVS GRANT AND PRI- VILEGE TO WILLIAM

Braithwait, for the sole Printing, and publishing Musicke,

H A R L E S by the grace of God, King of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, defender of the Faith &c. To all, to whom these presents shall come, greeting:

Whereas, we are informed by the humble petition of our well beloved subject, William Brai-thwait, Preacher, and Schoole-master. That after many yeares labours, studies, and endeavours, he hath accomplished an easie Method to facilitate Musicke, both for expedite, and exquisite composing; as also for speedy, and pleasant teaching, and learning it, by voice, or Instruments.
For voice, that he singeth seven usuall numerall Monosyllables, one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, and expresseth them by seven

A Arithmeticall

[1636]

1676:01

Arithmeticall figures. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7. diversly made, and that he singeth (as men reade) in one line, the name of the note appearing in it (tune and time, conspiring together in each figure) Which other Authors, and Writers have not heretofore done. And by the same petition he further sheweth, that he hath performed a Tableture for Instruments of Musick, after the same manner, comprehending tune, and time in each Alphabetical letter. And that also he hath devised to expresse the long, and short syllables in the Greeke, and Latine tongues, by the letters themselves, without the notes of length and shortnesse, which hath bin well approoved of, by sundry persons of learning, and judgment, and thereupon hath humbly besought us, in regard of his charges to be disbursed in publishing the said premisses, that we would be graciously pleased, to grant our Letters Patents of privilege unto him, for twenty-one yeares, for the sole printing and putting to saile of any booke, in the Greeke and Latine tongue, by his way so distinctly vowelled, and Musick booke, or lessons, by him so expressed as aforesaid. Know ye that we graciously favouring the industries of our subjects, in the investigation of such Art and Inventions, as may be of good use, and service to our people, and being willing to incourage them in all lawfull, and commendable studies, and endeavours, by appropriating unto them for some terme of yeares, the benefit and fruits of their inventions, of our especiall Grace, certaine knowledge, and meere motion, tion, having given, and granted, and by these presents for us, our heires, and successors, doe give and grant, unto the said William Braishwait, his Executours, Administratours & Assignes, full and free liberty, licence, power, privilege and authority, that He, his Executours, Administratours & Assignes, by him, and themselves, and by his, and their Deputies, shall and may, at all times hereafter, during the terme of twenty-one yeares, next ensuing the date of these presents, at his, and their owne proper cost, and charges, Imprint, and publish, or cause to be Imprinted, and published within this our Realme of England, and dominions thereof (according to the said Method, way and meanes, so by him devised) any booke or bookes, Poeme or Poems, Lesson or Lessons, for the more easie teaching, and attaining of Musick, by voice, or Instruments, and for the furtherance of Poetry, Oratory, and gracefull pronuntiation of the Grecke, and Latine tongues, as aforesaid, and the same booke or bookes, Poeme or Poems, Lesson or Lessons, and other the premisses, being by him, or them, or his, or their deputy or deputies, so imprinted, or caused to be imprinted as aforesaid, to sell, utter, and put to saile within our said Realme of England, and dominions thereof, for his, and their best commodity and advantage. Wherefore our will and pleasure is, and by these presents of our more especiall grace, certaine knowledge, and meere motion, we doe for Vs, our Heires and Successours, straitly charge, and inhibite all and every person, and persons sons whatsoever, other then the said William Braithwait, his Executours, Administratours, Deputies and Assignes; that they, or any of them, doe not hereafter within this our Realme of England, or the dominions thereof, print, publish or put to sale, or cause to be printed, published or put to sale, any booke or bookes, Poem or Poems, Lesson or Lessons, after the wayes, Method, manner or formes so invented or devised by the said William Braithwait as aforesaid, nor shall import or bring, or cause to be imported or brought into this our said Realme and Dominions thereof, from any the parts beyond the Seas, or from any our Realmes, or Dominions, any booke, or bookes, Poem, or Poems, Lesson, or Lessons, so imprinted as aforesaid, during the said terme of twenty-one yeares next after the date hereof, to be sould in this our said Realme and dominions thereof, without the license, consent and agreement of the said William Braithwait, his Executors, Administrators & Assignes or some of them, first had and obtained in writing under his, or their hand, upon paine of the forfeiture, & losse of the same booke, or bookes, Poem or Poems, Lesson, or Lessons, so imprinted imported, and put to saile, contrary to the tenour and true meaning of this our present grant or privilege, and upon paine also of our high displeasure, and such other penalties and punishments as by the Lawes & Statutes of our Realme, or otherwise may be inflicted on the offenders therein: for their contempt, and neglect of our royall will, and commandement comandement, herein before declared. To HAVE and to hold the said Licences, Powers, Privileges and Authorities, and other the premisses by these presents granted, or mentioned to be granted, to the said W. Braithwait, his Executours, Administrators and Assignes, for and during the said terme of twenty-one yeares, from henceforth next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended. And We doe by these presents, for Vs, our Heires, and Successours, give and grant unto the said William Braithwait, his Executors, Administrators and Assignes, full power, and authority, that he, they, and every one of them, by him, and themselves, or any of them, or by his or their Deputies, Servants, or Agents, shall and may, with the assistance of a Constable, or other lawfull Officer, at convenient time, and times, enter into any House, Shop, Workehouse or any other place or places whatsoever, where any cause of suspition shall be had, and there to view and search, as well for all such booke, or bookes, Poem, or Poems, Lesson or Lefsons, as shall be so printed, imported or brought into this our Realme, or Dominions thercof, to be sold, as aforesaid, as for all such Mu-sicall-Arithmetical figures, Punchions, Matrices, Alphabetical Letters for Tableture, and other such tooles, and Instruments, as shall be used, had, made, or employed, in or about the premisses, or any of them, contrary to the tenour, and intent of these presents. And the same being found, to seize, and take, as forfeited to Vs, our heires, and successors; the one moetie whereof to be to Vs our heires and successors, the other moetie thereof tobe and remaine to the said William Brais-thwait, his Executors and Assignes: And we doe by these presents for Vs, our Heires, and Successors, will, and command all, and singular Majors, Sheriffes, Iustices of Peace, Bailiffes, Constables, and Headborroughs, and other the Officers, Ministers, and subjects of Vs, our Heires and Successors, that they and every of them be from time to time during the terme aforesaid, ayding, helping and assisting to the said William Braithwait, his Executours, Administratours, Deputies & As-signes in all things in and about the accomplishment of our pleasure herein declared, & in full, & due execution of these presents, that they, nor any of them, doe at any time hinder, molest, or interrupt the said William Braithwait, his Executors, Administrators, Deputies, or Assignes, or any of them, in the having, taking, or enjoying of the Licences, privileges, benefits and profits by Vs hereby granted and intended to him and them, as aforesaid, as they tender our pleasure, and will avoide the contrary at their perill: and these our Letters Patents or the inrowlment thereof shall be their sufficient warrant in that behalfe. PROVI-D E nevertheless, and our will & pleasure is, that if at any time during the said terme of twenty-one yeares, it shall appeare unto Vs, our Heires or Successours, or unto the Lords, and others of the privie Councell of Vs, our Heires or Successours, that this our present grant is contrary to our lawes, or

or in any sort mischievous, or inconvenient to the state of this our Realme, then upon signification, and declaration to be made by Vs, our Heires, or Successors, under our signet, or privie seale, or from the Lords, and others of the privie Counsell, or six or more of them (for the time being, of such prejudice, & inconveniencie as aforesaid,) these our Letters Patents shall forthwith cease, determin, and be utterly voide to all intents, constructions, and purposes. And wee doe hereby grant, for Vs, our Heires, and Successors, that these our Letters Patents, or the inrowlment thereof, shall be good, firme, and effectuall in the Law, according to the truemeaning of the same. NOTWITHSTANDING the not mentioning, or describing, or the not certaine mentioning or describing of the said method, wayes, or meanes by the said William Braithwait so devised as aforesaid, and notwithstanding any other defect, incertaintie, or imperfection in these presents, or in any Law, Act, Statute, Ordinance, Provision, or Restriction whatsoever heretofore had, made, published, or provided to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. Neverthelesse, our intent, and meaning is, that this our present grant of privilege or any thing therein contained, shall not extend to prejudice any person, or persons in his, or their lawfull proprietie, right, or interest for the sole printing or publishing of any his or their Booke or Bookes, Poem or Poems, Lesson or Lessons, Copie or Copies, so as he, or they doe not print, or publish the same according to the method, way, or invention of the sayd.

sayd William Braithwait, any thing in these presents contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. A L T H O U G H expresse mentiō of the certaintie of the premisses, or any of them, or of any other gift, or grant by Vs, or any of our Progenitours or Predecessours to the said William Brai- thwait heretofore made in these presents, is not made or any Statute, Act, or Ordinance, Provision, Proclamation, or Restraint heretofore had, made, or dained or provided, or any other thing, cause, or matter whatsoever to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. In witnessse whereof wee have caused these our Letters to be made Patents.
Witnesse our selfe at Canbury the eighteenth day of August in the Eleventh yeere of our Reigne.

THE
NEW ART
OF LYING,
COVERED BY
IESVITES vnder the Vaile of Equivocation,
DISCOVERED AND DISPROVED
BY
Henry Mason.

---

---

LONDON:

Printed by George Purflowe for John Clarke, and are to be sold at his Shop vnder Saint Peters Church in Cornewill. 1624.